PART OF ME? MY
WHO ARE YOU
A TICK & A BEE?
FEELING DIFFERENT SOMETHINGS
I KNOW YOU ARE

Late Bloomer Uuuhh What is this? It doesn't hurt but Something's changed "B". What kind of a name is that anyways? What is it good for?
I go by "B" just like any tick goes by tick and any bee goes by bee... if insects don't get to have names then I don't want one either. Lately I've been with other occupied with the plants and small insects around me. More than I have been with other humans.
Wonder am I really one of them? Or am I different? They don't understand how but they say they do... Hmm. I prefer being alone... or together with those that don't the plants, the insects... may be I could give them names. Each one, a different calling. A word. Would take longer maybe a lifetime...
a lifetime well spent...
